

Riders of the Week

January 19 – January 22

Lance Wilburn

Lance Wilburn has been chosen for Rider of the Week by Mrs. Moody. He loves to play football and baseball because it is fun and he always makes the all-star team in baseball and the tournament team in football. His role model is Adrian because he is really nice and a very smart person. Lance's favorite movie is Real Steel, and his favorite book is The Three Little Pigs. When he grows up, he plans on becoming an NFL player so he can play with famous athletes. Mrs. Moody says, "Lance is a student that performs well in everything he undertakes. He is a very happy, well-adjusted child. He makes friends quickly and is well-liked by his classmates."

Mrs. Moody has also chosen Esmerai Hernandez for Rider of the Week. Her favorite movies are Inside Out and Good Dinosaur, and her favorite books are from the Junie B. Jones series. She loves to go shopping, hit the spa, and see a movie afterwards! Her father is her role model because he is always nice and helps her with her homework. When Esmerai grows up, she plans on becoming a dentist because she likes to brush her teeth and make sure they look good. Mrs. Moody says, "Esmerai is a student well-liked by her classmates. She is a cooperative, well-mannered child and shows pride in her work. She bubbles over with enthusiasm, bringing a cheerful attitude to the classroom."
