

Riders of the Week

February 16 – February 19

Brandon Denby has been chosen for Rider of the Week. He loves to jump on the trampoline and watch his favorite movies, Dolphin Tail and Dolphin Tail 2. His mother and father are his role models because they look out for him. When Brandon grows up, he hopes to become a marine biologist because he loves the ocean. His teacher, Ms. Owen, has chosen Brandon because “he’s eager to help others whenever he can. He’s responsible, respectful, AND has a great personality!”

Ms. Owen has also chosen Allison Hale for Rider of the Week. Allison loves to play her Xbox and watch her favorite movie, Act of Valor. Her role model is her brother Allan. She looks up to him because he is a marine and he cares about Allison a lot. Allison plans on becoming a marine when she gets older because she plans on serving her country until she dies. Ms. Owen chose Allison because “she is a prime example of what a Rider should be: studious, generous and respectful to all around her. She loves to get down to business!”
