

Riders of the Week

February 29 – March 1

Erick Bustos

Eric Bustos has been chosen for Rider of the Week by Kathy Johnson. Eric loves to play soccer, play with his brother, and read soccer books. His father is his role model because he is nice and plays with him. When Eric grows up, he plans on becoming a doctor so he can help people. Ms. Johnson says Eric, “is such a fun person! He can always make me laugh. He works hard and he tries his best.”

Ms. Johnson also chose Ashlee Sowell for Rider of the Week. Ashlee loves to cheer and watch movies, including her favorite movie: Teen Beach Movie. Her grandmother is her role model because she cooks homemade food. When Ashlee grows up, she plans on becoming a professional cheerleader because it is so fun. Ms. Johnson says, “Ashlee is a very dedicated student. She always has a positive attitude and tries her best.”

Ashlee Sowell

Center Intermediate School

R³ = Roughriders are Respectful and Responsible