

Riders of the Week

April 11 – April 15

Logan Hendricks

Logan Hendricks has been chosen for Rider of the Week by Vicki Baggett. Logan's favorite movie is Spongebob and his favorite book is Only One Wolf. When he grows up, Logan wants to be a Watermelon Gardener, but until then he enjoys playing basketball, soccer and xbox. Mrs. Baggett says Logan has "a great attitude in art class. He is positive, enjoys his work, and he always does his best. He is a pleasure to have in class."

Mrs. Baggett has also chosen Arista Lee for Rider of the Week. Arista's enjoys manga books and horror movies. Her role model is Jesus because he is real, nice to others, and he died on the cross for humanity. When Arista grows up, she hopes to become an artist because she loves to draw! It is a relaxing hobby and she thinks it really suits her. For fun, Arista loves to play on her electronics or read a book. Mrs. Baggett says, "Arista comes to class ready to work. She takes her art seriously, she is focused, and she
