

Riders of the Week

April 18 – April 22

Celeste Gibson

Natalie Morse has chosen Celeste Gibson for Rider of the Week. Celeste loves “every Disney movie in existence,” and her favorite books are, The Book Thief, Tuck Everlasting, Watership Down, and the Harry Potter series. Celeste says she doesn’t have a role model, but she gathers inspiration and support from everyone around her. When she grows up, Celeste hopes to be a lawyer specializing in education laws or an entrepreneur. For fun, Celeste loves to read, write, watch TV, play with her dog and listen to music. Ms.

Morse says, “Celeste is a voracious reader. I love that quality in a young person. She always has a book nearby. She is also an excellent student and strives to do her best at all times. I appreciate her effort and her smile.”

Ms. Morse has also chosen Blaine Gaddy for Rider of the Week. Blaine’s favorite movie is Friday Night Lights, and he loves to play sports like baseball and football when he gets the chance. Blaine has always looked up to his father, who is his role model. When he grows up, he wants to play in the MLB. Ms. Morse says, “Blaine is a very conscientious student. He is involved in numerous extra-curricular activities, yet he still makes sure he keeps up with all of his classwork. I appreciate his hard work.”
