

Riders of the Week

May 9 - May 13

Christopher
Benton

Christopher Benton has been chosen for Rider of the Week by Deloris Wyatt. Christopher loves to play soccer and all kinds of games with his friends. His favorite author is Dr. Seuss, and he has read all of his books and seen all of the movies. Christopher would like to be in the military, but he is talented artistically and may choose a career in that field. Christopher's role model is his father who is in the Army. Ms. Wyatt says, "Christopher is soft-spoken, but everyone can see his enthusiasm for learning through the smile on his face and the twinkle in his eyes. He will be a successful young man."

Ms. Wyatt has also chosen Alana McKenney for Rider of the Week. Her favorite book is Harry Potter and the Deathly Hallows, and she is always in search of a new book to read. Alana has many role models, and her goal is to be successful. When she grows up, she wants to become a teacher. She enjoys reading for fun, but she also does crafts and needlework. Ms. Wyatt says, "Alana is a role model for other students. She is always ready to extend a helping hand to others and does it with a cheerful attitude."

Gage Chessher

Cherie Rudd has chosen Gage Chessher for Riders of the Week. Gage loves the movie Little Giants, and he enjoys playing football and baseball. His father is his role model because he provides for him and his family. He wants to work on refineries just like his dad when he grows up. Ms. Rudd says, "I chose Gage because he is a joy to be around. He is always respectful and responsible with a positive attitude and great manners."

Cherie Rudd has also chosen Kaitlyn Hewitt for Rider of the Week. She loves to read Diary of a Wimpy Kid and play basketball. Her brother and aunt are her role models because they both like to help people. When Kaitlyn grows up, she wants to become a basketball coach so she can travel a lot and help her team to win. Ms. Rudd says, "I chose Kaitlyn because she is always positive and friendly. She is a joy to be around and is always responsible and respectful to others."
