

Riders of the Week

December 7 – December 11, 2015

Chris Hinson

Diaubree “Chris” Martin has been chosen for Rider of the Week by Kaci Lankford. Chris enjoys reading comic books and playing video games. His mother is his role model because she never gives up on what she wants to do. When Chris grows up, he hopes to become a football player because he loves to play football.

Tania Leon has also been chosen for Rider of the Week by Kaci Lankford. Tania loves books about animals and playing outside. When she grows up, she wants to be a hair stylist because she likes playing with people’s hair and showing them what she can do – just like her aunt! Her mother is her role model because she never gives up on what she is doing.
