

Riders of the Week

December 14 – December 18, 2015

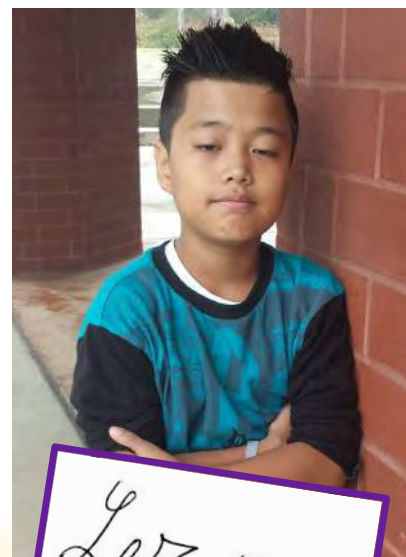

Nathali Abella H.

Mrs. Wiggins has chosen Nathali Hernandez for Rider of the Week. Her favorite movie is Annie and she loves to read and play with her sister. Her mother is her role model because she is very helpful to people. Nathali says, “she helps us with our homework even though she doesn’t know English.” Nathali wants to be a teacher when she grows up. She wants to teach students in the third grade and wants to be a great teacher like Mrs. Cook. Mrs.

Wiggins says, “Nathali is a model student. She follows rules, and always does her best. She is helpful to other students, especially newcomers, without being forceful.”

Mrs. Wiggins also chose Ler Moo for Rider of the Week. His favorite movie is Madagascar and his favorite books are from the series The Magic Tree house. His role model is his Manny Pacquiao. He is an MMA fighter, and Ler Moo wants to be a boxer like him. He trains hard and fights fair! Ler Moo also wants to play football as an adult. He loves to play sports and be active, play videogames, watch movies and play soccer. Ler Moo’s teacher says he is “bright, thoughtful, a hard worker, and has a great sense of humor. He makes me laugh, but always in a good way. He gives a lot of thought to answers and his writing.”
