From around campus:

“Mr. DuVon is a dedicated teacher for our Special Ed students. He teaches them how to learn some chores, how hygiene is important to them, cooking skills and the most important he also takes his time to teach them Math and United States History.”

“I nominate Mr. Duvon because he has such a unique way of handling kids with special needs. He is so good with them.”

“Mr. DuVon is a great teacher for our life skills students.. He work hard with our students so they can have independence in their own.”

“Mr. DuVon is a great life skills teacher. He is patient , kind and demands respect from his students. All of the students love and respect him. One of the most wonderful sights in the morning is watching them in a semi-circle around the flagpole raising the flags . As the flags go up they watch for Mr. DuVon's cue to be respectful and attentive. He has a lot of patience with in all aspects of learning.”

“Works very well with his extra special group of students!”

“He does an excellent job with the life skills students!”

“He's a tremendous asset to our campus. He's so calm and collected at all times, and I can tell he truly loves working with his kids. He is a great cook, too, and passes along his knowledge in the kitchen to his students!”
