

Riders of the Week

October 26 – October 30, 2015

Caroline Scull

April Bloys has chosen Caroline Scull for Rider of the Week. Her favorite book is, The Book Thief, and her favorite movie is Parental Guidance. Her role model is her grandmother, Carolyn, for always pushing her to do better and teaching her how to do new things everyday. When Caroline grows up, she would like to become a lawyer and attend Baylor University to achieve that goal. For fun, Caroline likes to play tennis and go swimming. She also enjoys spending quality time with friends and family. April Bloys chose Caroline because she is “always cheerful. She always completes her work and is a great friend. Caroline goes our of way to help others and is an exemplary role model for her peers.”

Mrs. Bloys also chose Tyler Herndon for Rider of the Week. His favorite movie is, Field of Dreams. He enjoys playing basketball, football, and baseball. His role model is Derek Jeter, because “he was a great person on and off the field and gave 100% every time he stepped on the field.” Tyler hopes to become an architect because he likes math. He hopes to attend A&M or Baylor. Mrs. Bloys says Tyler “aspires to go beyond and above in everything he does. Tyler is helpful and cares about others. Tyler is an outstanding student.”
