

Riders of the Week

February 1 – February 5

Hunter Rowland

Hunter Rowland has been chosen for Rider of the Week. Hunter loves to play sports, be involved in activities outside and play games. His favorite movie is The Curious Case of Benjamin Button, and his favorite book is Lemony Snicket. When Hunter grows up, he wants to be a video game designer, programmer and tester because he wants to do what he loves: video games! His father is his role model because he is a smart, hard-working man. Mrs. Michelle Clark chosen Hunter because he “has a naturally high intellect. With his internal drive to do well, he could accomplish great things.”

Mrs. Clark has also chosen Jesus Bustos for Rider of the Week. His favorite movie is The Lion King, and he loves to play outside with his dog, go fishing, and play soccer. When Jesus grows up, he plans on becoming a dentist because that is what he enjoys and it will lead to success. Mrs. Clark chose Jesus because he “is always striving to become better. He is incredibly respectful and polite. He will accomplish great things in life.”
