

Riders of the Week

February 22 – February 26

Azael Morales

Tracie Galindo has nominated Azael Morales for Rider of the Week. His favorite movie is Hotel Transylvania 2, and he enjoys playing video games and playing outdoors. His role model is his brother because he works hard and has accomplished a lot. When Azael grows up, he wants to be a video game designer because he likes video games and would earn good money. Ms. Galindo nominated him because he is a hard working student. He consistently tries to do his best on all of his assignments. He is also kind and respectful to authority and other students. He is a wonderful student and genuinely nice person.

Ms. Galindo has chosen Yareli Hernandez for Rider of the Week. Her favorite book is Janey's Girl by Gayle Friesen. Her role models are her grandparents because they taught her to be kind to others and never let anything bring her down. Now, they are in heaven, but she does her best for them. When Yareli grows up, she wants to work with children and take care of them. She wants to follow in her grandmother's footsteps. Yareli likes to read, write, draw, and do math for fun. Some people think that's weird, but she's just being herself. She tries to choose her own way. Ms. Galindo chose Yareli because "she's a wonderful student, and a fantastic person. She is always prepared for class and ready to learn. She is also kind and respectful. Yareli is a joy to teach."

Yareli Hernandez

Center Middle School

R³ = Roughriders are Respectful and Responsible