

Riders of the Week

February 29 – March 1

Raul Rebollar has been chosen for Rider of the Week by Jennifer Ferguson. Raul loves to go outside and play tag or sports, but will settle for video games when it is cold or raining. His favorite book/movie is Goosebumps. His role models are his parents because they are nice, friendly and hard workers. Ms. Ferguson chosen Raul because “he is an exceptional student and is always prepared and ready to work. He is focused and friendly to everyone. He is the perfect example of a respectful and responsible Rider.”

Dulce Chavez was also chosen by Mrs. Ferguson for Rider of the Week. Dulce’s favorite book is How to Speak Dolphin by Ginny Rorby, and her favorite movie is Dolphin Tale 2. Her role models are her teachers because they help kids and are very trustworthy. When Dulce grows up, she plans on becoming a preK-3 teacher because she wants to help kids. Her hobbies are singing, reading and playing basketball. Mrs. Ferguson says, “Dulce always comes in with a smile on her face and is ready for instructions. She is dependable and friendly. She is always willing to help any of the students that may need it. She is a pleasure to have in class.”

Center Middle School

R<sup>3</sup> = Roughriders are Respectful and Responsible