

Riders of the Week

March 7 – March 11

Jose Sanchez has been nominated for Rider of the Week by his band director, Ms. Powell. Jose's favorite movie is Lone Survivor. His role model is Marcus Luttrell because he serves our country, and Jose would like to be a Navy SEAL when he grows up in order to protect the United States. For fun, he likes to play the trombone. Ms. Powell says, "Jose is one of my hardest working students. I can't think of anyone else in my band who is working as hard as he has to be where he is in the trombone section."

Ms. Powell has also nominated Alyssa White for Rider of the Week. Alyssa loves to be with her family, shop, and watch her favorite movie, The Fault in Our Stars. Her mother, Haley, is her role model because she helps people with many things and succeeds at many things she puts her mind to. When Alyssa grows up, she plans on becoming a pediatrician because she wants to do something to help little kids. Ms. Powell says, "Alyssa is always prepared for rehearsal, acts like a mature young lady, and is very respectful to everyone."
