

Riders of the Week

April 25 - April 29

Mark Perkins has been chosen by Gladys Andrews for Rider of the Week. Mark loves to play Dominoes with his family and watch all of the Kung Fu Panda movies, which are his favorites. His grandmother, Mrs. Andrews, and Taylor Burch are his role models. He says his grandmother is his main inspiration, and Mrs. Andrews has taught him a lot and is a great teacher. When Mark grows up, he hopes to become a psychotherapist because he likes helping people fix their problems. Mrs. Andrews says, "Mark is such a terrific student. He comes in with his quirky sense of humor and just brightens my day. I have had him in 3 classes this year, and he has never had a bad day. He does his best in everything and tackles any task given to him. I'll never forget his 'Markisms', when he gets his words twisted! I know he is going to have a very successful future."

Mrs. Andrews has also chosen Taylor Burch for Rider of the Week. Taylor loves to play softball and tennis. Her two favorite movies are Million Dollar Arm and Heaven is for Real. Taylor looks up to her mother, who is her role model, because she is a great woman. When Taylor grows up, she wants to be a veterinarian because she has always enjoyed being around animals, and she thinks it would be a great job. Mrs. Andrews says, "Taylor is a hard-working, dependable young lady. She is very mature, and always willing to do whatever needs to be done. She has also been a yearbook editor this year, and has done a fantastic job getting pages completed. Having a perfectionist in yearbook is a blessing, and I have really enjoyed Taylor being in my classes."
