

Riders of the Week

December 7 – December 11, 2015

Ana Guerrero

Ana Guerrero has been chosen for Rider of the Week by Ms. Robin Bristow. Ana's mother is her role model because she is hardworking, respectful, responsible, polite and trustworthy. When Ana grows up, she plans on being a nurse because she wants to help people. For fun, she loves to read. Ms. Bristow says, "Ana is always kind and polite. She works hard and I love having her in my class!"

Witt Dockens was also chosen for Rider of the Week by Ms. Bristow. Witt loves lifting weights, reading, playing video games and hanging out with his friends. His father is his role model because he has an amazing work ethic and is a God-fearing man. When Witt grows up he wants to become a financial manager because he has always had an interest in math and business. Ms. Bristow loves having Witt in class. She says, "he is hardworking and kind to everyone. He has a great attitude towards life."

Witt Dockens

Riders of the Week

December 7 – December 11, 2015

Aidan Hagler

Kellan Carrell has chosen Aidan Hagler for Rider of the Week. His favorite movie series is The Hobbit series. His role model is his father because he always pushes Aidan to do better at everything he is involved in. When Aidan grows up, he would like to be a quarterback in the NFL. He has always liked football and he hopes to play as long as he can. If football doesn't work out, he would like to be an architect. In his spare time, Aidan likes to play sports and do any outside activity, such as playing fetch with his dog, jumping on the trampoline and shooting his bow. His teacher says Aidan is "an extremely hard-working student and athlete. He comes prepared to work every day and always has a positive mindset. He is an ideal role model for all student-athletes."

Tatum Mettauer

Tatum Mettauer has also been chosen for Rider of the Week by Kellan Carrell. Her favorite book is 90 minutes in Heaven. Her role models are her parents because they encourage her to be the best and are very good Christian examples. When Tatum grows up, she wants to be a lawyer because her father is a lawyer and what he does interests her. She is also considering a career as a pediatrician because she enjoys taking care of babies. For fun, Tatum likes playing softball and volleyball, going to church, cheering and playing outside. Her teacher says Tatum, "always has a positive attitude and works hard every day. She is constantly helping others and is a positive role model to everyone around her."

Center Middle School

R<sup>3</sup> = Roughriders are Respectful and Responsible