

Riders of the Week

October 26 – October 30, 2015

Reyna

Kindergarten teacher Amber Phelps has chosen 6-year-old Reyna Figueroa for Rider of the Week. Reyna loves to play outside on the trampoline, watch her favorite movie, Frozen, or read her favorite book, The Little Old Lady Who Was Not Afraid of Anything. Her mother is her role model because she works at a Doctor's office and helps people. When Reyna grows up, she wants to be a teacher so she can help kids. Amber Phelps says Reyna is "a very sweet girl. She is always willing to help others and always tries her best.

Reyna likes to read and always wants to learn more. She is a great example for our school and kindergarten class.

Kindergarten teacher Blanca Araiza has chosen 5-year-old Anthony Torrez-Cruz for Rider of the Week. Anthony enjoys running and playing tag. He likes to read, go to the park, read his favorite book, Are You My Mother?, or his favorite movie, Transformers. Coach Suell is his role model because he takes care of kids and Anthony has fun in his class. When Anthony grows up, he hopes to become a police officer because they protect people and put criminals in jail. Blanca Araiza chose Anthony because he is "a great asset in my classroom.

He is always ready to work and give 100% on his work. He is very happy and helps his friends and teachers. He is a wonderful 'Little Roughrider'."

Anthony Torres

F. L. Moffett

R³ = Roughriders are Respectful and Responsible