

Riders of the Week

January 4 – January 8

Ms. Huss has chosen 5-year-old Caden Neuwirth for Rider of the Week. Caden loves to go to the pool at his grandmother's house, color, watch his favorite movie, Minions, or read his favorite book, Pete the Cat Saves Christmas. His role model is his cousin Lila because she plays with him and she shares. When Caden grows up, he hopes to become a fireman because some fireman have dogs and they put out fires. Caden's teacher says that he is "very sweet, smart, and loving. He is helpful to others and always tries to do his best. He is also a fantastic artist!"

Lesleigh Fitzgerald has chosen 5-year-old Je'Sae Roberts for Rider of the Week. She loves to be the helper at school, and when she is at home, she enjoys playing with her kitten. Her favorite movie is Mickey Mouse, and her favorite book is about bats. When she grows up, she wants to be a teacher because she wants to teach someone how to learn. Ms. Fitzgerald chose Je'Sae because, "she is always excited to learn and do her best. She is always ready to help a friend and her teacher. She works well with others and is a joy to have around."

F. L. Moffett

R³ = Roughriders are Respectful and Responsible