

Riders of the Week

January 25 – January 29

Korey Valdez

Susana Grande has chosen Korey Valdez to be Rider of the Week. Korey loves read If You Give a Mouse a Cookie because the story is funny and he wants to have a mouse for a pet. His dad is his role model because he takes care of Korey, reads to him, plays at the park with him, and works very hard for Korey and his brother. When Korey grows up, he hopes to become a policeman so he can take bad guys to jail. Korey's teacher says he "is a very smart and sweet boy. He is always willing to help friends and adults. Korey always gives his best in all he does and is a role model for others."

Celia Aguilar has chosen Wendy Palma for Rider of the Week. For fun, Wendy loves when her mom does her hair and paints her nails. Wendy also loves to watch her favorite movies, Frozen and Cinderella, and play with her puppy. Wendy's role model is her mother because she "always takes care of the family." Wendy's teachers say she is, "a very energetic, happy girl everyday. She gives her best and she has an awesome attitude. She is funny when she tells everybody stories about her life."
