

Riders of the Week

February 1 – February 5

Trinity

Trinity Watson has been chosen by Ms. Fults for Rider of the Week. Trinity loves to play outside, play in the kitchen center, play in her sandbox, and dance to Disney songs. Her favorite movie is Inside Out. She says, “the whole story is great because there is a good one and a bad one and a sad one and one that panics.” Her favorite book is Santa Claus Workshop, because, she says, “Santa is over the elves and they are making the toys wrong.” Trinity wants to be a builder when she grows up because she is great at fixing stuff. She has experience: Trinity once fixed the wooden wheel on the train before by putting it back together! Her role model is her uncle Mervin because she wants to be a builder just like him! Ms. Fultz chose Trinity because she “is a very considerate, sweet girl who cares deeply for her friends and is an excellent student. She is a great helper to everyone and shines as a Rider.

Ms. Fitzgerald has chosen Ernest Martinez for Rider of the Week. Ernest loves to play with his Wii at home, and at school he enjoys playing outside with his friends. His favorite movie is Batman, and he loves reading books about Sharks. When Ernest grows up, he wants to be a policeman because he wants to help catch the bad guys. Ms. Fitzgerald chose Ernest because, “he always tries his best. Ernest is kind and respectful, and always has a smile on his face. He is a joy to have in class.”
