

Riders of the Week

February 8 – February 12

Alaney Mancera

Ms. Rowlett has chosen Alaney Mancera for Rider of the Week. Alaney loves watching Sponge Bob and playing on the trampoline. Her role model is her mother because she is nice. Alaney wants to be a cheerleader when she grows up because she wants to make people happy. Ms. Rowlett has chosen Alaney because she is “shy but is a great thinker in class. She is a friend to many and loves working hard. She is a great example of what a rider is.”

Ms. Rachel Fisher has chosen Jake Brittain for Rider of the Week. Jake loves to ride his four-wheeler, go places with his momma, and watch his favorite movie, Inside Out. His role models are fire fighters because they put out fires. Jake wants to be a fire fighter when he grows up because he wants to drive a “big ol’ fire fighter truck.” Ms. Fisher chose Jake because he is “a good student and always tries his best. He also has a fantastic sense of humor and is a good friend.”

Jake Brittain

F.L. Moffett

R³ = Roughriders are Respectful and Responsible