

Riders of the Week

February 16 – February 19

Bre'Asiah

Ms. Rogers has chosen Bre'Asiah Roland for Rider of the Week. Bre'Asiah's loves to play hide-n-go-seek, tag, and read her favorite book, Pinkalicious. When she grows up, she plans on becoming a fire fighter because she wants to be a community helper so she can help people. Ms. Rogers chose Bre'Asiah because she is so helpful. Not only does she help Ms. Rogers, but she is eager to jump in and help her classmates. She brightens every day because she is so willing to learn!

Ms. Araiza has chosen Aldo Salazar for Rider of the Week. Aldo loves to play with his toys and his tablet. He also loves to go to church and help people. His favorite book is Cat Traps and his favorite movie is The Minions Movie. Aldo's role model is his father because he always works and loves to play with the family. When Aldo grows up, he plans on becoming a police officer to capture people who escape from prison. Ms. Araiza says Aldo, "is a great student who is always happy and ready to work. He is an excellent classroom helper. He is very proud to be a roughrider."
