

Riders of the Week

March 7 – March 11

Caitlyn

Amber Phelps has chosen Caitlyn Broussard for Rider of the Week. Her favorite movie is Frozen, and her favorite book is Elsa. Caitlyn says she wants to be like her mother when she grows up because her mother loves her and takes care of her family. Caitlyn hopes to become a teacher when she grows up because she likes kids. Until then, Caitlyn will continue doing what she loves: playing outside with her brother and sister, playing freeze tag, staying with her daddy in the travel trailer when he is working, and swimming. Ms. Phelps chose Caitlyn because “she is a very hard worker. She is a good listener and follows directions. Caitlyn likes to help others and has grown and changed so much this year.”

Ms. Huss has chosen Zachary Payne for Rider of the Week. Zachary’s favorite movie is Goosebumps, and his favorite book is Cat in the Hat. His mother is his role model because she lets Zachary sit with her. When he grows up, Zachary plans on becoming a super hero because he would be able to do cool stuff like Superman. He wants to shoot lasers out of his eyes. For fun, Zachary likes to play with his brother and go outside and swing on swings. Ms. Huss chose Zachary because he is “a very sweet student who always tries his hardest to make good choices. He is a hard worker and nice to all of his classmates.”
