Adriel

Celia Aguilar has chosen Adriel Espinoza for Rider of the Week. Adriel loves the Ninja Turtles, playing with his toys, and playing with his sister Fatima. His role model is his father because he always helps him and is nice to him. In the future, Adriel would like to become a police officer because he wants to help people. Ms. Aguilar says, “Adriel is a very dedicated student. He likes to do his best in everything he does. He is very smart and brilliant. He is a natural leader. I enjoy having him in the class.”

Ms. Rogers has chosen Kandace Tutt for Rider of the Week. Kandace loves the TV show Peppa Pig, and going to Air U. Kandace has two role models: her daddy, because he takes her places, and Mrs. Rogers, because she is a fun teacher! When Kandace grows up, she hopes to become a teacher so she can help kids learn. Ms. Rogers says, “Kandace is kind and helpful to everyone in the classroom. She takes an active role in class discussions. She is courteous and shows excellent manners in the classroom.
