

Riders of the Week

December 7 – December 11, 2015

April

Lesleigh Fitzgerald has chosen April Htoo for Rider of the Week. April's favorite movie is Strawberry Shortcake and her favorite book is about bears! Her mother is her role model because she cooks for her and makes her bread. When she grows up, she wants to be a teacher so she can help boys and girls learn. For fun, Lesleigh loves to play with friends at school, and at home she loves to read. April's teacher says she picked April because "she loves to help others and always does her best. April is a hard worker and enjoys learning. She works great with others and is a joy to be around."

Mrs. Amber Phelps has chosen D'Marian Malone as Rider of the Week. D'Marian's favorite movie is Ninja Turtles and his favorite book is Busa Monkey. His role model is his grandmother because she helps take care of him and gives him cookies. When D'Marian grows up, he wants to be a firefighter because they save houses and people. For fun, he enjoys playing outside with his cousins. They play ninja turtles, tag and hide-and-go-seek. Mrs. Phelps chose D'Marian because he "is always smiling. He is very energetic and has a great personality. He is always willing to help others and always tries his best."
