A bit of excitement is added to our Homecoming week as all students voted for class favorites! These students will have a special page in the yearbook. You will find a list of Class Favorites on pages 10 and 11.

SUPER HERO

Tuesday, it was announced Rowdy had been picked up by the police. So we wore our super-hero attire

Wednesday in an attempt to rescue him!

BLACK OUT

On October 8, 2015, Center Middle School staff and students dressed in black in protest of Rowdy's arrest.

Black Out!

PEP RALLY

Homecoming week, one of everybody's favorite weeks. During the week of Homecoming 2015, the theme of the pep rally was Blackout. Each day that week, we had a theme that the staff encouraged students to dress. The pep rally took place on Thursday, at the CIS gym. Cheerleaders, dance team, twirlers, and the pep squad performed. We were all so very happy to find that Rowdy got out of jail, and he was returned to us, making his appearance at the pep rally.

HOMECOMING FOOTBALL GAME

CMS SPIRIT FAMILY

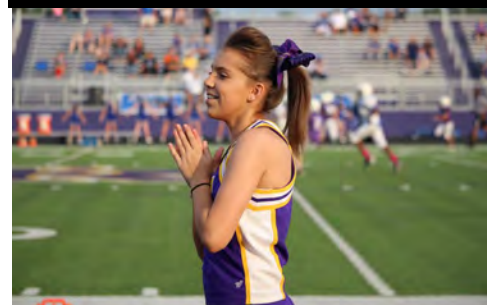

Our CMS spirit family also made an appearance at the Doo-Dah parade. Above, a few of the dance line members are all smiles in the parade. Below, Pep Squad members proudly hold their sign, and Raylee Wilburn marches with twirlers.

If you have attended any CMS related events during homecoming week, you have seen our incredibly supportive spirit family! Our CMS spirit family consists of our CMS cheerleaders, twirlers, dancers, band and pep squad! At football games, pep rallies and such, our CMS football team gets a lot of support!

"We wouldn't be as good as we are without our supporters (spirit family," says one CMS football player.
