

Peggy Pedroza

Peggy has served alongside her husband, Mike, in nearly every aspect of the local church for over 20 years, including the area of their first love, children's ministry. She's a devoted wife, mother of two & encourager to many.

Peggy is the author of Walking on High Heels, her life threatening story and how the wisdom of the Bible brought her back from a sudden tragedy to living beyond a devastating medical diagnosis. With her combination of humor, resolve and the persistence to overcome a life of paralysis, she opens up her life behind closed doors to give the reader insight on how acting on Biblical principles can and will bring you out of any situation to stand on His High hills.

Peggy will share what God has laid on her heart for our conference. She speaks from her daily walk with God. Riveting, inspiring, humbling testimony is what others have said about Peggy.
